AN EVENING OF MUSIC IN TOWN CENTER

Popular Outdoor Pops Concert Features Symphony of the Americas

The world-class Symphony of the Americas took the stage on Sunday, March 11th for the Outdoor Pops Concert, a popular free concert held annually at Weston Town Center. The concert is presented annually by the Weston Philharmonic Society, the City of Weston, and Weston Town Center, in partnership with The Arts Council of Greater Weston.

Under the direction of Maestro James Brooks-Bruzzese, the orchestra delighted the audience with musical selections from Music Man, Curtain Up!, sections from The Producers, Guantanamera, Broadway Showstoppers, Brahms Hungarian Dance No. 5, and Stars & Stripes Forever, among many others.
