

Mayor and Commissioners Sworn into Office

L-R: Mayor Daniel J. Stermer, Commissioner Toby Feuer, Commissioner Thomas Kallman and Commissioner Margaret Brown.

Mayor Daniel Stermer and Commissioner Thomas Kallman, who were reelected without opposition, and newly elected City Commissioner Margaret Brown were sworn into office on November 21, 2016. Each will serve a four-year term on the City Commission.

The BSO Honor Guard along with the BSO Weston Explorer Honor Guard, Post 44 presented the colors at the start of the Commission meeting. The Pledge of Allegiance was very aptly led by students from Manatee Bay Elementary School, who also gave a cameo performance from their recent Constitutional play by singing the Preamble to the Constitution in their Early American-period costumes.

Mayor and Commissioners Sworn into Office

Newly elected City Commissioner Margaret Brown was administered the Oath of Office by husband Eric Brown.

Weston's newly elected Commissioner, Margaret 'Peggy' Brown was administered the Oath of Office by her husband Eric while family, friends, co-workers and supporters watched from the audience which was filled to capacity. Commissioner Brown, is the Regional Executive Director of the Center for Hearing and Communications in Florida, a not-for-profit agency, located in Broward County, which provides life-affirming hearing health care and audiological services, training, after school programs, case management, mental health counseling, and advocacy for the hard-of-hearing, deaf, and deaf/blind in South Florida. A resident of Weston since 1999, Commissioner Brown is a veteran of the U.S. Coast Guard, having honorably served for four years. She earned her BA degree in Psychology from Connecticut College, and an MS degree from Nova Southeastern University in Conflict Analysis & Resolution, and doctoral work in Organizational Conflict. She is the proud mother of two daughters, and grandmother of two.

Mayor and Commissioners Sworn into Office

Commissioner Thomas Kallman was administered the Oath of Office by long-time friend, former Broward County Mayor and current Broward County Property Appraiser-Elect, Martin Kiar.

Commissioner Kallman will serve Weston for another four years and has pledged to continue to bring the Rotary four-way test to all he does: Is it the truth? Is it fair to all concerned? Will it build goodwill and better friendships? Will it be beneficial to all concerned? The Commissioner thanked his family, friends, fellow and former Commissioners, staff and community organizations for his and the City's success. Commissioner Kallman was accompanied by his daughter, Alison and his fiancé, Elena.

Mayor and Commissioners Sworn into Office

Mayor Daniel J. Stermer is administered the Oath of Office by his three children Jaclyn, Zachary and Adam (L-R)

Mayor Stermer, elected unopposed, thanked his family including his parents who were in attendance, city staff and the community. Mayor Stermer said, "I do what I do for my children." Mayor Stermer has been a tireless advocate for the City of Weston, serving on numerous boards and committees for the betterment of Broward County. The Mayor stressed in his speech that our community did not get to where it is today by chance. That the accolades received, such as the top ten list for Money Magazine and Family Circle, are unsolicited rewards for excellent planning and management. Not one to rest on his laurels, Mayor Stermer looks forward to continuing progress over the next four years.

Mayor and Commissioners Sworn into Office

View City Commission meetings online Live or Archived