WESTON MAINTAINS STELLAR CREDIT RATING

Moody's Re-Affirmed the City's Aaa Rating

The City of Weston maintains the highest quality issuer credit rating assigned by Moody's Investors Service (Aaa) and by Standard & Poor (AAA) - which is defined as the strongest creditworthiness relative to other U.S. municipal or tax-exempt entities. These ratings are valuable for the City to continue to obtain the most favorable interest rates and terms for future borrowing.

On November 8, 2016, Moody's Investors Service affirmed their 'Aaa' rating issued for the City of Weston. Standard & Poor affirmed their 'AAA' rating for the City of Weston in 2010. To read this most recent Moody's Local Government Issuer Comment Report on Weston, click here.

The City of Weston is in very exclusive company. Only two other municipalities in the State of Florida have been issued the Standard & Poor AAA credit rating, and only four other municipalities in the state have achieved Moody's Aaa credit rating.

Weston Property Owners are Shareholders

Property owners, business owners and rental residents alike should feel confident in their local government's financial position. Per Moody's report, Weston's credit is of the "highest quality, and its Aaa rating significantly surpasses the median rating of Aa3 for US cities. Key credit factors include a notably strong socioeconomic profile with a substantial tax base, a robust financial position, and exceptionally light debt and pension burdens."

How Does Weston Do It?

City Manager, John R. Flint, summarized the City's financial position in his Fiscal Year 2017 budget message:

"Weston has now completed two decades as a municipal corporation, and with many noteworthy accomplishments. We have consistently maintained our fiscal discipline that has earned us AAA credit ratings with two agencies. We have successfully pioneered a contract style of management that has proven to be effective, efficient and sustainable."

CHIEF ANGIER

Chief Fire Officer Designation

Congratulations to Weston Fire Chief, Bruce Angier, who has successfully completed the voluntary recertification process for the designation of Chief Fire Officer, which is conveyed by the Commission on Professional Credentialing. Chief Angier is one of 1,184 who have attained the Chief Fire Officer designation worldwide.

The Chief Fire Officer designation is designed to recognize individuals who demonstrate their excellence in seven areas: experience, education, professional development, professional contributions, association membership, community involvement, and technical competencies. Chief Angier received his original CFO designation in 2013. In order to maintain the designation, he was required to demonstrate that he has continued to develop as a CFO in four competency areas: professional development, professional contributions, active association membership and community involvement.

Chief Angier joined the Broward Sheriff's Office Department of Fire Rescue and Emergency Services in 2014, when he was hired as the Assistant District Chief in the City of Weston. Prior to that, he rose through the ranks of the Boca Raton Fire Rescue Department over an impressive 25-year career. He held the position of Battalion Chief for 14 years before leaving to join Weston. In June 2016, he was selected as Chief for the Weston district, replacing Chief Harris Bouchillon who assumed another position within the Broward Sheriff's Office Department of Fire Rescue.

'TIS THE SEASON OF SWEETS AND TREATS

Tips to Avoid Holiday Weight Gain

The holiday season has arrived. From Thanksgiving through the end of the year we will be tempted with good food, treats and sweets at home, at work and at gatherings among family and friends. So, what can we do to avoid the temptations that lead to unhealthy weight gain over the holiday season?

- ▶ Get moving Regular sustained aerobic activity helps to maintain or lose weight. To burn off those extra calories over the holidays, increase your exercise routine. Increase your routine from 30 minutes a day to 45, or three times a week to five.
- ▶ Aim for seven-a-day Eat seven or more servings of fruit or vegetables to help fill you up without adding many calories.
- ▶ Control the risk for temptation Control your contact with tempting foods. It could be as simple as not keeping candy on your desk, or limiting treats to the breakroom.
- ▶ Limit to one-a-day Allow yourself one small serving of a cookie or piece of candy each day during the holiday season. Remember that you may have to compensate for it later in the day by reducing your overall calories or by burning a few extra calories while exercising.
- ▶ Always plan ahead – Never go to a party hungry Eat a healthy snack before leaving for a holiday party.
- ▶ Be in charge of your party choices A small appetizer will help you avoid over-eating at dinner. For dinner, a good rule is to fill half of your plate with salad and vegetables, a quarter with meat and a quarter with starch. Skip seconds and choose your beverages wisely.
- ▶ Say No Politely To those that continually offer food, politely decline. “No thank you. Everything was delicious.”
- ▶ Focus on socializing Conversation is calorie-free. Step away from the buffet and socialize.
