

Where the water
FLOWS after it leaves your neighborhood.

Rain Storms

Keep catch basins clear of debris, such as leaves, palm fronds and other landscaping waste to prevent flooding.

Catch Basin

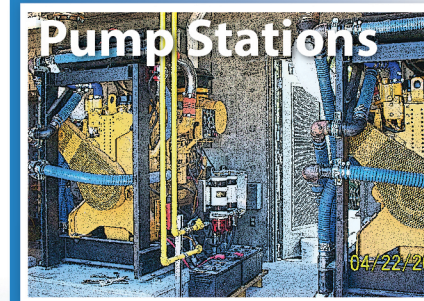

Lakes in Weston are interconnected and built to store storm water.

Lakes

Excess water in lakes is pumped to two regional canals; that water then goes west to the Everglades.

Pump Stations

Canals

Everglades

